

Recession hits St Maarten airline

Thursday, 19 March 2009

Winair, a St. Maarten Government owned commuter airline is shedding 12 jobs and cutting routes amidst the financial turmoil.

}Winair has provided safe and efficient air transportation in the North Eastern Caribbean for the last 47 years.